HABITAT FOR HUMANITY NORTHWEST HARRIS COUNTY
HURRICANE HARVEY DISASTER REPAIR PROGRAM IS STILL ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

Houston, Texas (January 22, 2019) – Habitat for Humanity Northwest Harris County’s Hurricane Harvey Disaster Repair Program is still assisting homeowners in the Northwest Harris County area who have experienced damage from Hurricane Harvey.

“We are so excited for this program’s continuation, made possible by Bank of America and our community partners. This will serve many vulnerable families across the county,” Executive Director of Habitat for Humanity Northwest Harris County, Soleil Watt, said. “We receive countless e-mails and phone calls from homeowners who share their positive experience with us, who cannot believe they are back in their home after what they’ve been through.”

Applications will be accepted January 21st - February 16th.

To find out more and to start the application process, visit our website: www.habitatnwhc.org

Applications may also be filled out in person at our office located at 13350 Jones Rd. Houston, TX, 77070. Monday – Saturday, 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM.

Habitat for Humanity Northwest Harris County is a 501-C-3 non-profit organization that has been building homes for over 20 years. Our mission is founded on the conviction that every family should have the opportunity to own a basic, decent home in which to live in dignity and safety.
